Alexandria Gazette

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 10.

The New York Observer contains a long article on the duty of the Northern Presbyterian Church to establish missions and churches on the territory now occupied by the Southern Church, which refuses to become one with its Northern brethren. The chief reason urged is that the Southern Church, either from lack of means or lack of enterprise, is not fully occu-pying its field. The lamentable condition of the Southern Church is set forth in the statement that "nearly two-thirds of their pastors have inadequate salaries; a large number of their ministers are not in the work, as it is thought owing to want of support; one half, and probably two thirds, of the churches, when grouped into pastoral charges, are unable, without assistance, to support the stated ministry; four hundred churches, about twice as many as in 1867, are now vacant, because they can not receive aid in support of the ministry.' This is hard enough, but the Northern Church has more than it can just now manage in its own territory, without seeking to intrude where intrusion would be followed by competition and bitterness. To enter on the territory of the O. East and West, and at Lynchburg for the Southern Church would but increase the pressouth and South West; at Manassas for Stras-Bouthern Church would but increase the present alienation .- N. Y. Sun.

PROPOSALS.

FALED PROPOSALS, ADDRESSED TO the undersigned, will be received at the Auditor's office until 12 o'clock m. Monday, the 13th day of August, 1877, for the REMOVAL OF THE PAVEMENT ON DUKE STREET beginning on the east side of Alfred street, and ending at the railway crossing on Henry street, and for the REGRADING OF SAID STREET between the points named; also for the REPAVING OF SAID STREET with cobble stones, and the RELAYING OF THE GUTTERS on each side of said street with good hard bricks—the paving to be laid in a bed of sand six inches deep, to be covered with gravel and well rammed, and again covered with sand and gravel to the depth of two inches. The contractor will be required to haul all the material necessary for the work, which will be furnished.
